Underwritten by Transamerica Life Insurance Company or Transamerica Financial Life Insurance Company

Term life insurance can help cover final expenses if the unexpected happens, but the benefit payment can also be used to supplement a lost income or for living expenses like a mortgage, childcare, or tuition. If you're recently married or plan to start a family, term life insurance can help safeguard your family's financial future and group insurance often costs less than individual insurance.

59% of families planned to spend more than $10,000 on child care in 2021.<sup>1</sup>

MEET MAX

Max is a 37-year-old proud dad of two kids. They keep him busy with soccer games and ballet classes and he wants to make sure that they continue to enjoy a bright future. That's why he purchased a 10-year, $100,000 term life insurance policy to help cover their care and maintain their quality of life if something should happen to him.
